

Young Professionals Association of Louisville

Diversity in the Obama Age

The Henry Clay

604 S. Third Street

Tuesday, February 10th

5:30 p.m. Registration

6-8:00 p.m. Program

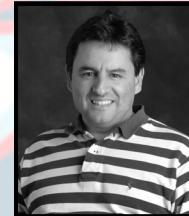

Join the Young Professionals Association of Louisville as we host a discussion panel with the following local political, business and educational leaders. They will discuss the direction of the country from a diversity perspective following the historic election of Barack Obama as the 44th President of the United States.

Lt. Governor Dan Mongiardo

Dr. Ricky Jones - Professor of Pan-African Studies at U of L and author of What's Wrong with Obamamania?

Rico Nieto - Creative Alliance, Vice President of Multicultural Communications

Bonita Black - Frost Brown Todd LLC, Member and Co-Chair of Diversity Committee

Along with Julie Tam of Fox 41 News as event moderator.

Heavy appetizers will be provided prior to the event during registration and each attendee will be able to enjoy Finlandia's newest creation, an Obamatini!

Cost for event is $5 for YPAL members and $10 for non-members.

Register now at www.ypal.org—seating is limited!

Register

Event Sponsors:

Frost
BrownTodd LLC

FINLANDIA®
Vodka of Finland

Public Partners:

Governor's Office of Minority Empowerment